Lowering Age Limit Urged By Convention

(Courtesy The Lethbridge Herald)

The lowering of the age limit for old age pensions was urged Wednesday at the Alberta Convention of pensioners and senior citizens, held in St. John's Anglican Church hall

More than 200 delegates from all parts of the province attended the convention, which was termed a "tremendous success".

Mrs. Harriet Cunningham, Lethbridge, national secretary of the association, said that the lowering of the age limit was set as a centennial project but added, "we hope we can get it sooner."

The meeting commended both the provincial and federal governments for their part in aiding pensioners and senior citizens.

Another resolution urged further investigation by the federal government into drug prices but commended the government for action along that line so far.

Dr. Lawrence Kindt, MP for Macleod, told the gathering that no method of portable pensions has been found yet that would meet the requirements of all.

He brought greetings from Prime Minister Pearson and Mr. Diefenbaker.

Provincial Welfare Minister L. C. Halmrast praised the group for its work on behalf of the elderly people.

"Old age security is not relief or welfare," Mr. Halmrast said. He said the government would do the older people security.

He said he felt the government was doing a great deal for the older citizens.

He pointed out that the provincial welfare budget in 1963 was $8,000,000, while last year it was $8,000,000.

Grand Union Under New Ownership

The entire family have taken up residence here.

Prior to coming to Coleman Mr. Caskey was a vice-president of the Gull Lake Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Elks and Lions Club, and of the Legion. He has had extensive experience in the hotel business, owning four hotels and also being general manager of a hotel company prior to coming to the Pass.

Mr. Pawluk is also married and has one son Albert James 18, who will be completing his grade 12 at the Horace Allen high school this fall.

Mr. Caskey and Mr. Pawluk will operate the hotel.

Since taking over the hotel the new owners have done considerable re-decorating and are presently re-decorating the cafe which will be operated by Mrs. Geraldine Caskey and Mrs. Olga Pawluk, assisted by a staff of two Coleman women. ## Body of Walter Feregotto Located at Lake on Sunday

Four scuba divers, Vern Cederberg, Jack Lee, Lindy Smith and Herbert Ellerman, president of the Lethbridge Scuba Diving Club, succeeded in their attempts to find the body of Walter Feregotto around noon on Sunday.

The lad's body was found on the north west side of the lake in about 40 feet of water, not far from where the accident happened a week ago Sunday.

The boy was drowned when the canoe he and two friends, Neil Chalmers and Dwight Oliva, were in, overturned. The two survivors were able to cling to the side of the canoe, which drifted ashore.

Reports indicate that high winds had caused the lake's water to become very choppy, which caused the accident, about 4:30 in the afternoon.

RCMP police dragged the lake for several days and earlier attempts at skin diving failed to recover the boy's body.

Walter, 17 years of age, was born in Trasaghis province of Udine, Italy, on July 1st, 1947. He came to Canada when he was two and a half years old, and was a grade ten student at the Horace Allen High School in Coleman.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Feregotto, and a brother Roy, four, in Coleman; a sister, Mrs. William (Sylvana) Aschacher of Blairmore, and a grandfather in Italy.

Prayers were said from Fantin's Hillside Chapel at 7:00 o'clock on Monday evening, and Requiem High Mass was celebrated from the Holy Ghost Catholic Church in Coleman at 10 a.m. on Tuesday.

Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The Rev. Father Denis Fleming officiated at the services.

Fantin's Hillside Chapel were in charge of arrangements.

Paul Linderman, Racing Driver, Dies In Accident

Drag race driver Paul Linderman of Bellevue, Alberta, pushed the wrong button on his $9400 Super Stock Dodge Hemi-Charger at Calgary on Saturday, August 1st, and never lived to tell the story.

Linderman, the 36-year-old father of three, was demonstrating the car to 2,000 spectators at Shepard Raceways in Calgary when it went out of control and crashed.

Set Record

He had crossed the raceway finish line at a timed 118 miles per hour when the car skidded, flipped end-over-end and rolled sideways, throwing him out. A bracket holding one end of his seat belt to the floor, broke.

Jim Frouws, sales manager of Fred King Motors, who sold the car, said after talking to Linderman's pit man, Lyle Harvey, also of Bellevue: "I heard it was a good run. He just pressed the wrong button, that's all."

Friends of Linderman, who own a similar aluminum-bodied car, told police a driver normally presses the neutral button of the automatic transmission controls after crossing the finish line and coasts to a stop to avoid overheating the engine.

Mr. Frouws said Linderman earlier in the day set a new record for the Calgary track by blasting over the quarter mile in 12.2 seconds from a standing start, reaching 125.2 miles per hour through the traps at the end.

Wrong Button

The reverse and neutral buttons are close together at the top of the dash in the car, said Mr. Frouws, and it is quite possible Linderman pushed the wrong one, causing the car rear wheels to lock.

Passenger cars, he said, have a reverse lockout that prevents reverse gear from being engaged at speeds above 10 miles per hour, but this device has been removed from the racing car transmissions. The car, according to police, is a complete wreck. Acting Coroner Dr. J. B. Aiken, said no inquest will be held.

Linderman was born in Foremost and lived there until the age of 15, when he moved to Hillcrest. He moved to Bellevue in 1951.

He was the owner and operator of Paul's Esso Service and Paul's Trucking. An enthusiastic drag racer, he held records on Edmonton, Calgary and Claresholm tracks, as well as at several points in the United States.

He was a member of the Blairmore Moose Lodge and the Crows Nest Pass Chamber of Commerce.

He is survived by his wife, Alice and three children, Debbie, 11, Wayne, 8 and Larry, 6; his mother Mrs. Katherine Linderman of Hillcrest; three brothers, Mort, Mike and Edward, all of Hillcrest; five sisters, Mrs. Virginia Stobbs, 100 Mile House; Mrs. Rose Pisony, Lundbreck; Mrs. Albertina Shields, Calgary; Mrs. Doreen Vannoni, Blairmore, and Linda, at home.

Rites Wednesday

Prayers were said at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in St. Cyril's Church in Bellevue. Requiem High Mass was

Former Coleman Old-timer Passes In Vancouver

Coleman old-timer, Mrs. Agripa Belevich died in the Vancouver General Hospital on July 8th the age of 79 years.

Mrs. Belevich was born in Roznow in the district of Kosow in the Ukraine in 1884. She came to Montreal in 1907 and then went to Winnipeg in 1908. The same year she came to Coleman where she married Anton (Tony) Belevich in 1917. They resided in Coleman until 1948 when they moved to Vancouver to be near their only daughter Olga and her family.

She was predeceased by her mother, Mrs. Polyana Gushul of Blairmore, and her brother Thomas Gushul, also in Blairmore.

Mrs. Belevich suffered a stroke on June 9 and was taken to hospital on June 13th, where she was put in an oxygen tent and given intravenous feeding, but she remained unconscious during these three weeks.

Survivors include her husband Anton; one daughter, Mrs. Al (Oga) Grinkus and two grandchildren Anthony and Anita Grinkus of Vancouver, and one sister, Mrs. Pearl Baker of Coleman.

Funeral was held in the Mount Pleasant Chapel at 10 a.m., Saturday, July 11th with interment in the Mountain View cemetery, where many former residents of Coleman were present as well as her Vancouver neighbors and friends.

Gravestone farewells was said by Mr. William Valukus on behalf of the Lithuanian Benefit Society.

celebrated by Rev. Dean P. Tessier at the church at 10 a.m. on Wednesday. Interment was in the Hillcrest Catholic cemetery.

Drag racing enthusiasts who knew Linderman, are planning a benefit race for his family in the near future.

Seek New Site For Garbage Disposal

The East Coleman Citizens' committee comprising president Ed Churla, secretary Steve Mraz and committee members met with the Coleman town council members last week regarding the location of the present nuisance grounds.

Present at the joint meeting were Dr. Kurt Adler of Chinook Health Unit, Sanitary Inspector James Berger and William Kovach, MLA.

Services Held For Otto Comin

The Holy Ghost Church was well filled July 29th when the many friends of the late Otto Joseph Comin gathered to attend the Requiem High Mass celebrated by the Rev. Dean P. Tessier of Blairmore. Interment followed in the Catholic cemetery. Hall's Funeral Services Limited were in charge.

Mr. Comin drowned Sunday afternoon in the vicinity of the Racehorse Vicary Creek Junction while attempting to save his 12-year-old son Robert and 11-year-old niece Roxanne Graham.

The children had waded into the water and were swept over by the current.

Other persons nearby were alerted and rescued Robert Comin, but Mr. Comin and Roxanne were swept into a deep pool out of sight.

Lynda Dann, 15-year-old bronze medal swimmer of Vulcan, who was present, dove into the water and recovered Roxanne, who had been under water for an estimated four minutes. Lewis Blair of Pincher Creek, a qualified first aid man, applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and after some fifteen minutes' treatment, the girl responded. Mr. Comin's body was recovered some time after.

Mr. Comin, 39, was born in Bellevue, January 7, 1925. He was employed by Coleman Collieries Vicary Mine, and was a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Coleman Elks and the Holy Name Society.

Surviving are his wife Phyllis, three children, Rene 15, Robert 12 and Rhonda 4; three brothers, Sylvio of Bellevue, Peter of Canmore and John of Klimat, B.C.; two sisters, Mrs. Victor (Perina) Dias of Calgary, and Mrs. Bruno Sabajits of Bellevue.

Local Boy Wins Best Kit Award

Ordinary Seaman Leslie W. Yaromay, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Yaromay, Coleman, Alberta, has won the Best Kit award on graduation from a 15-week new-entry training course at HMCS Cornwallis, Cornwallis, N. S., Ord.

Seaman Yaromay was born in Turner Valley in July, 1943, and was a student at Coleman high school prior to being enrolled into the navy in February, 1964, by the RCN Area Recruiting Officer in Calgary.

Employment Picture In The Pass Is Good

Mr. Terry Robertson, manager of the National Employment office in Blairmore, representing an area from Cowley, Alberta, to Fernie, B. C., has stated employment conditions are reasonably good. Coal companies are continuing to provide full time employment for all experienced miners in the area.

With the settlement of a local woodworkers' strike, the lumbering industry is slowly returning to normal operations. In the Alberta area, mill and logging operators report they have not returned to full production due to earlier heavy rains and snowfall. The British Columbia area reports most lumbering operations have returned to normal.

Electro Magic, a new manufacturing industry in the process of being established near Bellevue, is progressing with building alterations and company officials hoping to start production in the near future. Residents and other industry in the area look forward to a successful venture.

The announced plans of Phillips Company of Brockville, Ontario, to build a $1,500,000 plant for the manufacture of communication cable was welcome news to all residents of the Crows Nest Pass area. This will mean more employment for many young men and women who would normally have to leave the area to find suitable employment.

There is still a shortage of jobs for high school students seeking summer employment. It is suggested employers, wherever possible, hire a student for that part-time or casual job.

Mr. Robertson reported a comparison of statistics indicated our employment situation is comparable with the same period last year.

Card of Thanks

We would like to thank all those who were so kind to us during the loss of my dear wife and mother. Special thanks to Doctors Aiello and Martinez, Nurses and Staff of the Crows Nest; Pass Municipal Hospital, Elks' Lodge and all those who helped in any way during our recent sad bereavement.

Thank you all very sincerely.

The Canada I Love: An 'Unfashionable' Testament

I Love Canada.

Mackay's Magazine assures me that no Canadian loves his country, and a thousand critics inform me that there is no such thing as a Canadian, no separate and distinct Canadian identity.

I Am One.

Politicians and pundits assure me that there is no Canadian flag, no Canadian national anthem, but I am content with our flag, a sort of red ensign with the Canadian coat of arms in the fly, and I am always moved when a good band plays "The Queen", but I could learn to stand up for "O Canada", too.

I Love Canada.

There are people like Rene Levesque and Marcel Chaput who alternately assail me for oppressing my French-Canadian brothers and threaten me with a promise to pull Quebec out of confederation but I have been shipmates with Johnny Bernatier and drunk with the Van Doos and kissed Ghislaine Gagnon and voted for St. Laurent and saluted George Vanier and cheered Jean Beliveau, and I know they're Canadians, too. We both learn each other's language, and though their English and my French might be a bit shaky in spots, we're none the worse for that.

I Love Canada.

The Americans think I'm a Limy and the English think I'm a Yank, but I feel wise and superior in the States and young and vigorous in England, and I wouldn't trade my country for both of them. Oh, I know the Americans have more money and the British have more poise, but I like to think that Canadians combine the best features of both their ways of life.

I Love Canada.

Our politics are dull and our sports bush league, but you can't beat the beer or the air. Oh, there are Nathan Cohen and the Argos and Gordon Sinclair and Real Caouette but you have to take the rough with the smooth, same as anywhere else. Torontonians think Canada lies south of Muskoka between the Humber and the Bluffs, but I have crossed the Yukon and trod the lonely beaches of the Queen Charlottes, felt the Chinook's warm breath across the prairie snows, boiled lobster above the Fundy tideline and picked blueberries on the bare hills above St. John's. It is a magnificent country, the most richly varied in climate and scene in all the world, home of a vigorous and warm-hearted people, a country to be proud of. I am a Canadian. Are there any more like me?

Antelope Hunting in Alberta

Antelope hunting has become so popular in Alberta, that it has been necessary to establish restrictions, including a limit on the number of participating hunters each year.

This limit has, to a large degree, been determined by the way in which antelope hunters customarily distribute themselves during the hunting season. Several areas are apparently "favorites" for many hunters while other, high density antelope regions, are unknown to many and remain relatively un-hunted. Inability to control hunter distribution has necessitated a limited issue of antelope licences during recent seasons, to ensure that the favorite and heavily hunted areas are not over harvested. If better hunter distribution can be obtained a greater number of hunters can participate and a large and more representative antelope harvest can be achieved, say Fish and Wildlife officials of the Alberta Department of Lands and Forests. To effect better antelope management and to meet increasing demands for hunting opportunities, it is imperative that a fair system of distributing hunters be established at once.

For the 1964 season, antelope range of southeast Alberta has been divided into seven antelope "hunting areas". Antelope hunting application forms, available at all Fish and Wildlife offices, contain sketch map that identifies and locates the seven areas. Applications contain a list of preferences and each applicant is required to enter the number of his preferred hunting area in the space next to "Preference Number 1". Subsequent area choices may also be entered in spaces provided for "Preference Number 2", "Preference Number 3" and so on to provide a sequence of seven preferences, if desired.

Hunting applications will be separated in terms of area preference when they are received at Fish & Wildlife headquarters. If a selection or "draw" of applicants for a particular hunting area is required on behalf of harvest control, every applicant will have an equal opportunity of being selected to hunt in his "first choice" hunting area.

Following a primary "draw", every unsuccessful applicant will have an equal chance of being selected to hunt in his "second choice" area; again unselected applicants will move to the draw for their third choice area. This system will be operated until all harvest quotas for each of seven hunting areas has been reached. If a hunter desires to hunt on one area only he should only complete Preference Number 1 on his application form. This will indicate that if he is an unsuccessful candidate he does not wish to be considered for hunting in other areas.

Following completion of the required selection by "draws" all applicants will receive notification of the result of their applications. This notice will direct successful applicants to return their notification together with the $5 licence fee. The validated hunting licence will be mailed following receipt of fee and notification by the Fish and Wildlife Division.

The licence is actually a part of the hunter's application and carries on it his original preference list, certified for hunting in one of the seven areas only. The licence is not valid in other areas. An antelope hunting tag or seal is forwarded with each licence.

VIEWING HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

TV TALK

August 15 to 21

What's your particular sports fancy? If it's golf, football or baseball, you're in for a special treat as the CBC-TV network provides coverage for all three this week.

On Saturday, August 15th at 1 p.m., CDT, there's the Baseball Game of the Week. Dirty Dean and Pee Wee Reese report from Wrigley Stadium in Chicago, as the Chicago Cubs play the Pittsburgh

Pirates.

Later the same day, CFL Football action will originate from the CNE Stadium in Toronto at 8 p.m. CDT. Dan Kelly describes the play as the Toronto Argonauts, led by the indomitable Jackie Parker, take on the Montreal Alouettes, who just happen to possess one of Canada's finest half backs — Geo. Dixon.

For viewers, whose interests lie outside the realm of sport, CBC-TV will present a filmed documentary entitled "Diary of a Small Boy on Vacation", on the 20/20 series, Saturday, August 15 at 5 p.m. CDT. It concerns a summer vacation as seen through the eyes of a young boy. The boy is the guest of Canadian writer Farley Mowat, who lives at Burgeo, Newfoundland. The film shows a trip by Mowat and the boy on the writer's little schooner, Happy Adventure, and a visit to Miqougan, a French Island about 60 miles from Burgeo. Then at 7 p.m. CDT, on Saturday, August 15th, there's a half hour of comedy with the zany British comedian Tony Hancock. In this episode Tony goes out on the town, but isn't quite sure just what he's doing, when he awakens the morning after in a bridal suite of a hotel — with two women.

At approximately 9:45 p.m. CDT Saturday, August 15th, viewers will see the prize-winning Czechoslovakian film, "Sense and Emotion". Sense is represented by a trumpeter, who blows his magic trumpet, changing the disordered scenery into a geometrically designed layout. A Harlequin represents emotion, blows his magic pipe and sets all in disorder again, flowing freely.

Returning to sports, on Sunday, August 16th at 2 p.m., CDT, CBC-TV presents coverage of the Canadian Women's Open Golf championship which has been taking place at the Calgary Country Club. Immediately after this, viewers will see highlights of the Canadian finals of the Little League baseball championship, held at Valleyfield, Quebec. The winner of this event will compete in the world championships at Williamsport, Penn.

Ed Sullivan hosts an internationally flavored show Sunday, August 16 at 8 p.m. CDT. On that occasion his guests include American singer Della Reese, the Kaye Sisters, British vocal trio, Hrach Yacoubian and his Greek singing, dancing and instrumental group, and Jack LaCayen and Gelsomina, Italian acrobatic dance team.

A survey of the latest space explorations findings will be seen on Horizon, Sunday, August 16th at 10 p.m. CDT. Host-writer Lister Sinclair introduces several internationally known space experts, including Sir Bernard Lovell, director of England's Jodrell Bank radio telescope; Dr. Fred Hoyle, professor of astronomy at Cambridge University, and Dr. J. Beverley Oke, an authority on galaxies.

New Legislation Passed On Motor Vehicles

The Hon. Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, warned today that new legislation passed at the last session of the Legislature would be effective on July 1st and mentioned particularly the following three points:

1.—That a fine up to $500 was the penalty for owning and operating a vehicle or permitting any other person to operate a vehicle that was not covered with a Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance Policy or for which a green certificate had not been purchased. The green certificate indicates that the vehicle is not insured; it gives the owner no protection but does require the owner to pay an additional sum into the Unsatisfied Judgment Fund, from which payments must be made for damages and injuries done by non-insured vehicles.

A person is much wiser to use the $20.00 to purchase a P.L. and P.D. Insurance Policy, which gives him some protection," the Minister stated.

While a person may operate a vehicle with a green certificate, should he become involved in an accident from which a judgment is secured against him, he could have his entire future mortgaged with a $20,000 or $35,000 judgment.

2.—A new section in the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act requires the owner of a motor vehicle to have a muffler on his vehicle, which does away with excessive noise. Fines for noisy mufflers or for mufflers that are not effective are:

- (a)—for a first offence up to $50.
- (b)—for a second offence up to $100, and
- (c)—for a third offence up to $200.

"Driving on the highways, I have noticed a good number of vehicles with inadequate mufflers and the owners of such vehicles are learning themselves liable — I would suggest that they have adequate mufflers placed on the vehicles in order to avoid the unpleasantness of convictions and fines," the Minister said.

3.—New Legislation requires that vehicles not operating close to the maximum speed on a multi-lane highway, must use the outside lane — it will be an offence after July 1st for slower vehicles, except for the purpose of making a left hand turn, to use the inside lane unless they are travelling at the maximum speed or close to the maximum speed.

I look forward to receiving the paper and keeping in touch with the progress of the town. We are all hoping to get back to Coleman in a few years and roam the hills. Our two children loved it in 1961 and keep asking "when can we go back?" They, too, liked the mountains and wished we would have stayed longer.

Give my regards to the folks there. Some of them may still remember me!

Yours truly,
Oliven Brown.

P.S. My dad, Alan J. Brown is still going strong at 82. He lives in Calgary with my sister, Gwen Cousins.

"OUR ALBERTA HERITAGE" THE BANFF SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS

One of the world's unique education centres is Alberta's Banff School of Fine Arts. When it started in 1933, the School offered only courses related to the theatre. Students numbered below one hundred. As the number of students slowly increased, other courses were included in the curriculum.

Today, courses in ballet, painting, television and radio writing, among others, are taught to students from Canada, United States, and many other countries.

School facilities, modern in every respect, are used by religious, lay bodies, businessmen, scientists, rural leaders, and many other groups and organizations.

The Banff School of Fine Arts has proved to be a springboard to fame for many. In London, New York, and at Canada's famous Shakespearean theatre in Stratford, you'll find artists, actors and musicians who have attended lectures at the School.

The success of the School of Fine Arts is a credit to the Albertans whose perseverance started a cultural centre in Banff which has become world-renowned.

That such men and women exist and help this province prosper, materially and culturally, is a credit to OUR ALBERTA.

This is an example of the stories of enterprise and courage in Calgary Power's new publication "Our Alberta Heritage". Mail coupon for your free copy.

"The Responsibility Is Yours"—CHSC

"Almost every driver will insist he is a good driver," said the Canadian Highway Safety Council.

Then CHSC asks, "Why are more than 4,000 people killed and 125,000 people injured on the road every year, and why are there more than 600,000 accidents?"

The Council claims that human error is responsible for the vast majority of traffic mishaps. "The problem is that almost every motorist fully believes it's The Other Driver who is responsible for those horrible statistics. He conveniently forgets that HE is The Other Driver to 'everybody else on the road.'"

Promoting its annual summer vacation campaign "Slow Down and Live", CHSC has issued an urgent plea to every motorist to keep constantly in mind the irrefutable fact that every individual driver has responsibility to prevent accidents. The Council repeated its statement that accidents must be prevented one at a time because they occur one at a time.

"If every motorist did everything he could to prevent accidents, the total would drop significantly and hundreds of people would live who might otherwise die ignominiously and horribly," the Council said.

One must be poor to know the luxury of giving.
